KLYS is a high performance football Academy for boys between the ages of 5 to 17. KLYS promotes a professional-like approach to training and playing the 11-a-side game. Players are selected by the coaches for matches and tournaments based upon their skill, ability and commitment. This means that there is strong competition for playing games and that some players can be disappointed.

Players should not be left for long periods of time before or after their allotted time without parental supervision. KLYS & coaches are not responsible for players who are not collected on time.

I give permission for my child named above to participate in the KLYS program. I will not hold KLYS, its directors, parent representative, coach or referee responsible for any injuries or loss of property to participants.
